

| 100% | Normal text | Arial | - 16 + | B I U A | | | | | | |

SUMMARY +

OUTLINE

NCBCA

NCBCA Meeting Minutes March 2, 2022

In attendance: Craig Langhofer, Mindie Colanese, Rosie Michiaels, Sandy Raabe, Paul White, Joyce Forbes, Kim Vaundry, Peg Adams, Jeremy Williamson, Will Miller, Bob Humbarger, Dan Caruso, Macy Kauffman, Dave Doll, Trudy Menke, Stephanie Murphy, John Borkowski, Abby Wiles

Introductions

Treasurer's Report-Sandy Raabe reported a balance of $3181.57. Joyce Forbes moved to accept the report, Rosie Michiaels seconded. The motion passed

Membership Drive Update: Joyce and Craig reported that they continue to reach out to businesses that are not members.

Town Update: Marcy Kauffman reported that the Town is working on their comprehensive plan. They will have a public meeting and opportunity for input at the Library on Monday, March 7 at 6:30 pm. The Town is also working on a new website that they hope to have up and running before too long. Dave Doll reported that the new portion of the cemetery should have plots available for sale beginning this summer.

Old and New Business-none

Guest Speaker: Abby Wiles discussed the St. Joseph County Master Plan. They are in the public comment phase. More information can be found St. Joseph County is seeking input on their comprehensive plan. You can find more information about the plan at this website and provide comments here. You can also comment in person at a public meeting at the Library on March 31 at 5:30 pm.

Other public meetings of note:

Fire Territory hearing regarding the addition of Hudson Township to the current Fire Territory will be held at Monroe's Crossing on Sunday, March 13 at 1:00 pm Central time. John Borkowski invited the head of the Goshen Chamber of Commerce to talk about how they revitalized their downtown to the point where they have a waitlist of business wanting space. That meeting is April 27 at 6:00 pm at the Library.

